Seasonal Highlights

Serengeti National Park, Tanzania by Amie Bunnik

January to March

Marvel at the wildebeest calving season in the Serengeti and Maasai Mara.

Admire flocks of flamingos at the tranquil shallows of Lake Nakuru in Kenya.

Delight in South Africa's birthing season as zebra, antelope and hyena roam with their young.

April to June

Embrace South Africa's cooler months with unhurried safaris and wine country charm.

See the Okavango Delta come to life as floodwaters create a haven for birds, antelopes, elephants and crocodiles.

Savour Kenya and Tanzania's green landscapes, where peaceful scenes set the stage for intimate safari experiences.

July to September

Follow the rhythm of the Great Migration across the southern Serengeti and Maasai Mara.

Revel in Etosha's crisp mornings and superb wildlife at waterholes in Namibia.

Spot lemurs and chameleons during Madagascar's dry, wildlife-rich season.

October to December

Feel the force of Victoria Falls as rising waters create a thunderous, misty spectacle.

Watch wildlife gather at Kruger's waterholes as the dry season peaks.

Encounter baby lemurs and vibrant rainforest life on Madagascar's east coast.